

Busselton Oral History Group (Inc)

Established 1985 Incorporated 2009

As its name describes, the Group's purpose is to record and preserve history through the oral medium, in the form of interviews which are shared digitally and transcribed to produce a typed copy.

Our Collection

Books Reflections of the Jetty.
Reprint; Busselton, Outstation on the Vasse.
BLISS; Busselton Life in Snips & Snaps.

Individual Interviews

Currently ~ 230 interviews with a diverse mixture of residents from the region.

Projects or Interview Series including

Communication in the Vasse region 1830-2004

Development of Holiday / Tourist Accommodation in the Geographe Bay

Region Busselton Health Study 1966 – 2008

Ethnic – through the Office of Citizenship & Multicultural Interests

ANZAC Centenary Project, 2014

Repertory history

Our CDs are available to borrow from the Library

Contacts: Chairman; Kathy 9755 4417 armkat@bigpond.com
Secretary; Heather 0422485486 hrh@globaldial.com

If interviewing or transcribing interests you,
new members and volunteers are very welcomed by our small group.

Oral History

*is the recording of memories of a person's unique life experiences.
Through oral history the past comes alive.*